Typically, Commissioners and LAFCO's Legal Counsel attended the UCLA Planning and Land Use Conference scheduled on January 27, 2023 for in-person only at Omni Los Angeles Hotel at California Plaza 251 South Olive Street Los Angeles, CA. 90012. There is no virtual attendance option this year.

The Conference material is attached as Attachment A.

The program, included practitioners from both land use law and planning disciplines providing balanced analysis of critical legal cases that affect land use decisions. The conference also focused on the actual results of laws that have been in effect for some time and provided updates on aspects of the law, like CEQA, that evolves every year. The panelists provided their insight and perspective into land use issues ranging from housing and rent control to coastal policies, cannabis land use, and development and zoning law.

Santa Barbara LAFCO conference attendees will brief the Commission on perceptions of the conference at a follow-up meeting.
